

FRIENDS
of the Knox County Public
LIBRARY

Mission statement: The Friends of the Library (FOL) are dedicated to fostering a love of libraries, books and reading in the Knox County area by community outreach, advocacy and support of the Knox County Public Library system and staff.

Now's the time to renew your FOL membership!

And Here Are A Few Good Reasons For Doing So:

Thanks to your dues, gifts, and proceeds from the book sale, FOL is funding over $45,000 for Knox County Public Library programs this year, including:

- Children's Festival of Reading
- Children's Summer Library Club
- Knoxville Jazz Festival
- WBIR Heartland Series Preservation
- Book and Author Event with Inman Majors
- The Big Read
- Microfilm Reader for Knox County Archives
- Multimedia projector for Burlington Branch Library
- Snacks/Supplies for Lawson McGhee Library's Children's Room
- Teen Programming including ShakesFest and Teen Movie Lounge
- Outdoor bench for Norwood Branch Library

Benefits of FOL Membership:

- The knowledge that you nurture the love of books, reading and libraries
- Admission to "Members Only Preview Day" at the annual Used Book Sale (two adults, children free)
- Our newsletter that keeps you informed of FOL and library activities
- Volunteer opportunities to join your energy with that of other book lovers, including library advocacy, working at the Friends@Rothrock Used Book Shop, or reading to Head Start classes.
