SHOEBOX LIBRARIES

Just for a moment, imagine:

- You are a volunteer trying to help children learn what and how to read.
- You are a child of a working single parent who needs an after-school safe zone in which to read and learn.
- You are an elderly veteran with impaired vision and/or hearing.
- You are an anxious mother of two children waiting with you most of the day for your hearing in divorce court.
- You are a troubled teenager in alternative school trying to improve yourself, or in juvenile detention with idle hands and mind.
- You are a resident of a senior-living facility with little or no transportation.
